

MAY DAY

International Workers' Day

"EIGHT HOURS FOR WORK, EIGHT HOURS FOR REST, EIGHT HOURS FOR WHAT WE WILL!"

“Our society has been woefully negligent about what in other contexts we would call the rules of zoning, the regulation of commercial activity where we live, figuratively and literally. It is a question that goes to the heart of how we value what used to be called our private lives.” - Wu, Attention Merchants

GET IN THE ZONE

After Wu, on the Occasion of May Day

Attend to your space.

Identify “zones” dedicated to:

WHAT YOU WILL

(90 seconds)

Take Notes. Share.